ELKS ORDER IS NOW ESTABLISHED.

New Organization Launched in a Blaze of Glory—Distinguished Visitors Present.

A BANQUET AND SPEECH-MAKING.

Twenty-two candidates lined up last night at Masonic Temple, and faced the goal—or, rather, the goal "faced" them—and were carried through the initiation mysteries which develop antlers. The crowd was large, representative, and fully into the spirit of things, and to say that they enjoyed the occasion would be putting it too mild.

Besides the resident Elks, whose membership will be placed with the local lodge, there were large delegations present from St. Augustine, Orlando and Gainesville, besides a sprinkling from other Florida points, and members from all points of the compass outside of Florida. So, altogether, the initiating ceremonies were marked by the distinguished presence of visiting Elks from every section of the country.

The new organization is christened Daytona Lodge No. 1141 Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. The lodge was instituted by District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler H. S. Chubb, of Gainesville.

The initiating ceremonies were by Orlando Lodge No. 1079, W. R. O'Neil as Exalted Ruler, assisted by the St. Augustine lodge.

After initiating the candidates, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler Chubb again took the gavel, and the officers of the new lodge were elected and installed, as follows:

- J. D. C. Morris—Exalted Ruler.
- C. C. Bohannon—Leading Knight.
- F. J. Niver—Loyal Knight.
- G. B. Seaman—Lecturing Knight.
- Geo. F. Crouch—Secretary.
- F. N. Conrad—Treasurer.
- F. D. Spring—Tiler.
- C. M. Bingham, J. H. Pierson, F. M. Rowe—Trustees.

After the election of officers the entire body moved as one man to the banquet room, where Chas. Kost and wife as extras, had spread a banquet, a feast fit for the gods, and here mirth, wit, repartee and other good things actually flowed.

Reaching the banquet hall the demand for George F. Crouch for toastmaster was unanimous, and without warning he was clothed with this regalia, the gavel passed over to him, and he started the banquet hall festivities.

In response to Toastmaster Crouch's requests there were speeches by A. M. Taylor, St. Augustine; Grand Outer Guard of the Supreme Lodge; H. S. Chubb, Gainesville; Exalted Ruler W. R. O'Neil, Orlando; Eugene Masters, Mayor of St. Augustine and Mr. Lighter, Exalted Ruler of the Wilmington, N. C. lodge.

But for the lateness of the hour other toasts would have been offered. As it was Daytona was not represented as the toastmaster wished and many distinguished guests from out the borders were not called upon.

The Daytona lodge starts out under the most favorable auspices and omens.

OPERA HOUSE NEEDED FOR DAYTONA.

Steady Increase in Population of City Renders a Playhouse Almost Imperative.

A WAY OUT IS HERE SUGGESTED.

Not only are citizens of Daytona asking why she doesn't have an opera house but tourists are frequently asking the question. If anybody knows of any really good and valid reason why Daytona should not have an opera house let him speak or forever hereafter hold his peace.

A Daily News representative was talking over the subject very recently with Graham Thompson, a joint owner of the opera house block, and he himself does not know why Daytona isn't enjoying more plays and better plays than she ever did before.

The word went out, some months ago, somehow, that the opera house is not secure. Nothing is farther from the facts. It is as solid as Gibraltar itself. Messrs. Laurence and Graham Thompson had architects come and make a close inspection of the building, its timbers and strength, and without exception they declared it one of the strong and best built buildings in the town. Some have said that in case of fire the exits are not sufficient. This could be easily remedied by taking the ticket office out of the north end of the hall and by building fire escapes from the windows. These precautions taken the risk of danger would be reduced to a minimum.

In the good old days the old-timers gave so well to tell about the writer has attended plays and concerts in the opera house when big kerosene lamps were suspended from above, candles were stuck in bottles in the dressing rooms, candles on the stage, and not an electric light in the building.

Suppose the lamps be eliminated, the candles removed, the ticket office taken out of fire escapes built at the windows, electric lights installed, then "Who's afraid?"

It is highly probable that if some capable, wide-awake theatrical manager would enter into negotiation with the Messrs. Thompson a five-year lease could be secured, the building put in proper shape and a legitimate source of amusement again inaugurated which would add to Daytona's popularity. Tourists come here for pleasure and entertainment, and if they don't get it they will seek it elsewhere. Why not rejuvenate the opera house? With the precautions taken as herewith indicated it would be foolish to let the fire bug-aboo intimidate you; there would be about as much likelihood of fire as there is of Councilman Mills' "Park" being set on fire by fireflies one of these warm January nights!

The season is now on, and just before you, so if Daytona wants an opera house as badly as many seem to think she does, it is time to act.

EXAMINING BRAIN-STORM

(By United Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Justice Tompkins of the Supreme Court decided today that Harry K. Thaw will have a trial of his mental condition to take place in New York county. No date was named.

TRI-CORNERED RACE EVENT.

Since Justice Titus shied his castor into the ring for the collector stakes new interest has been aroused and another candidate is announced. The latest to enter the list is Albert E. Shanks, of the firm of Shanks and Son. If anybody else in town is honing to get the first feel of the public funds this is a good time to make the fact known. Scientists say that money gathers infinite numbers of infinitesimal germs with handling, and in consideration of this fact the early handlers of the coin of the realm run less risks than do those farther down the line, hence the importance of getting in for the early count.

W. H. Edmondson announces for reelection as assessor, while George F. Smith comes out as a competitor and others perhaps are being groomed for this race.

With Hobbs, the present incumbent, aspiring to succeed himself, and Titus and Shanks contesting in the collectorship, and W. H. Edmondson and George F. Smith out in the assessor's race, and insistent talk of a mass meeting for an early date the political horizon promises to become sufficiently lurid for the most demanding nature.

MINOR & VINCENT AT THE CRYSTAL THEATRE NEXT WEEK.

Minor & Vincent, in "The Arrival of Arrabella" are a scream from start to finish. Mr. Minor opens the act with a very clever and witty monologue which scores a big hit. When (Miss) Vincent appears on the scene as a Key West beauty, the house is in an uproar, and continues so throughout the entire sketch. A noticeable feature, and one that was commented on by many, was that the monologue used by Mr. Minor in the second show was entirely different from the one used in the first show. The song introduced by Minor entitled "The Far Off Golden West" were perhaps the prettiest words ever heard in this city and many tears were brought to the eyes of various patrons.

The housekeeper and assistants arrived Friday and opened up the B. A. Armstrong residence on S. Ridgewood avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will arrive the middle or latter part of next week.

CREW TRYING TO STEAL SIDING.

(By United Press.)
GLEENWOOD SPRINGS, Col., Jan. 16.—Fifty are believed to be dead and many injured, according to latest reports of the wreck last night at Dotsore between a westbound Denver & Rio Grande passenger and an eastbound freight. Thirty bodies are supposed to be buried in the debris.

Officials say the responsibility for the wreck lies with the crew of the passenger train, who were trying to "steal" a siding.

The scene of the wreck is hard of access to doctors and nurses. A trainload of survivors arrived here this morning and they say all the day coaches were wrecked.

Two additional relief trains left for the scene, 20 miles away, at 8 o'clock.

A CORPSE, MUTILATED.

BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 16.—The horribly mutilated body of Mrs. Sophy Confal was found this morning in the cellar of her home on North Bradford street. Near the body lay an axe. No motive for her death has been discovered.

LATER.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 16.—Sophy Bartusok, daughter of the murdered woman, has been arrested. She and her husband lived with the aged woman. The Bartusok woman was found in bed this morning hysterical and told a disconnected story. She says that her brother, John Confal, murdered his mother.

at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 16.—The San Souci Club met at the home of Mrs.
J. P. Esch, Wednesday afternoon at the usual hour. The program was "Reading Journeys in Germany," and after the business routine, Mrs. Esch read some very interesting extracts from "Little Journeys in Germany." Mrs.
Ronald read a synopsis of Goethe Leyand, by same writer. Mrs. C. H. Ray-nor, invited guest, by request, gave a very interesting description of her personal impressions while traveling through Germany. Dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. A. Freeman
The study for the afternoon will be Tennyson.

Mesdames Banks and Stickler made the trip to New Smyrna yesterday.

The Vermont party, at the Ten Yoke House, Mrs. Taylor and daughter, Bertha, and Misses Meeker and Proctor, brought their Northern thrift with them.
They have put up a very neat sign,
"Vermont," and have decorated variously with the native foliage, giving the "Vermont" a very hospitable and inviting air, so much so, indeed, that they have made some very pleasant acquaintances from their own and neighboring States.

Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Barze and children arrived Friday afternoon. They were met at the train by J. E. Williams, and Mesdames Burdick, Smith, Nickerson, Kelley and Haney, members of the M. E. church, were at the parsonage with a tempting repast set, awaiting to welcome them.

The fog swept in from the ocean yesterday afternoon until by four o'clock it was quite dense; so much so that one had the impression of coming suddenly upon things and yet the temperature was so mild that nobody thought of staying in doors on account of it. It has probably saved us from a cold wave.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester, friends of Mr.
and Mrs. Thomas Beach, from Jackson, Mich., are expected to arrive here next week on a visit to the former. Miss Smith of Brooklyn is also expected and will arrive in company with Mr. and Mrs. Lester.

Then She'll Tell You.
"Tell me," said the lovesick youth,
"what's the best way to find out what a woman thinks of you?"
"Marry her," replied Peckham promptly.—Philadelphia Press.

The Cause.
Wife—What was the matter? I thought you would break down the house. Husband—I dreamed I was trying to put on my clothes in the upper berth of a Pullman.—Life.

More than 4,000,000 persons living

The Power of Habit.
After having been a faithful devotee of the automobile two years or more Mr. Bragdon suddenly was seized with a violent fancy for motor boats. "A beautiful river runs by this town," he said. "Why not have some enjoyment out of it? In a motor boat you don't have to dodge policemen and rural constables."

So he bought one, took a day's instruction in the art of managing it and keeping the machinery in running order and started out on his first trip with it one bright morning in July.

It was late in the afternoon when he returned home. He came in by the back way. His clothes were water soaked, and he had a generally limp and bedraggled appearance.

"For pity's sake, Alfred!" exclaimed his wife. "What has happened to you?
Did the boat upset?"

"No, Lucy," he answered. "Don't say anything about it and I'll tell you.
The boat's all right, but when I had been out on the water an hour or two something went wrong with the motor."

"Well?"
"Well, before I—er—knew what I was doing I was over the side of the boat and trying to get under it to fix the thing."

The Modern
 Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
 One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicud Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vege-tion, artistic cottages with rooey ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white-headed p-leian p-c-h a fat mullet, and that fish hawk sti-agling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
 See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchanting Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood Avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elvish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines running riot in the trees; see the cryptogams forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
 Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
 It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

A Spanish War Criticism.

When the Spanish war came upon us Commodore Dewey was at Hongkong. The navy department had sent him no preliminary orders. He didn't know anything about the ultimate policy or what the ultimate plan of campaign would be. The navy department didn't itself know. Dewey should have moved two or three days sooner than he did, and two or three days sometimes are vital. But our Washington officials were only aroused to the necessity of giving Admiral Dewey an order by a cablegram from Dewey informing them that the British governor of Hongkong insisted that our fleet must leave there. We were so dazed by the immediate exigencies of war that the English government had to prod us in the ribs to wake us up. Then our Washington authorities issued an order and not till then. They told Dewey to proceed to the Philippine Islands and capture or destroy the Spanish fleet. In other words, they gave him the stereotyped war order in the phraseology of the signal code, which, literally translated, read: "Go ahead and do the best you can. We give it up."—Collier's.

The Silver Thread.

A matron in Harlem was calling upon another matron in Harlem. Neither was young, but one looked more so.

"Really, my dear," said the one that looked more so, "you ought to have your hair treated. It's becoming quite gray in spots. See what a difference it has made with me. You would look much younger—really."

"But I don't care to look much younger if I must dye my hair to do so," was the reply. "I prefer to be natural. If the Lord sends me gray hair there's a good reason, and I'm satisfied."

"But think of your children, my dear. They're grown up now."

"What have they got to do with it?"

"Why, don't you see? The younger you look the younger it makes them appear. And your girls are way past twenty, you know."

The matron who was gray in spots was still looking dazed when her visitor departed.—New York Globe.

Costly Law Robes.

An English judge's outfit in the way of robes imposes a heavy tax upon the newly appointed judge, although the cost is not nearly so great as it was in the early days of Queen Victoria. Then it was the custom for the law luminaries to attend court functions in figured damask silk gowns, with costly lace bands and ruffles. These, a celebrated legal dignitary of that day, is said on one occasion to have spent $100 on bands alone. The lord chancellor's robes cost something like $150, and even a judge's stockings are an expensive item. The wardrobe of a judge costs anything from $500 to $600, and if the newly bedged "my lord" is attached to the king's bench division he will require five gowns, a grille, a scarf, a casting hood, a black cap, a three cornered cap, a beaver hat, a cocked hat, a silk hat, lace bands and two full court suits, swords, etc., to keep up the majesty of the law.—London Globe.

What They Said.

"Did the girls say anything when they heard of my engagement?" she asked, with a little curiosity.

"Very little," was the reply of her dearest friend.

"But they said something?"

"Oh, yes; they said something."

"Well, what was it?"

"Well, most of them merely exclaimed, 'At last!'"

There was a pause, and then she asked:

"Well, what did some of the others say?"

"One of them said, 'Who'd have thought it? Another, 'Will wonders never cease? And a third—"

"Oh, never mind the rest," interrupted the fiancée. "I never did have much curiosity."

Was He Delirious?

"Almost every man," says a Baltimore specialist, "learns sooner or later to think of his doctor as one of his best friends, but this fact does not hinder the world from laughing at the profession."

"How is our patient this morning?" asked a physician, a fellow graduate of mine, of a patient's brother.

"Oh, he's much worse," came from the other in a tone of dejection. "He's been delirious for several hours. At 3 o'clock he said, 'What an old woman that doctor of mine is!'" and he hasn't made a rational remark since."—Lippincott's.

A Rising Fall.

A certain member of the British government who was admittedly a great failure was being discussed by two of his colleagues.

"And now," concluded one, "they want to make him a peer!"

"No," said the other, with greater acumen; "they want to make him disappear."

The Japanese and Their Prisoners.

The Japanese have a rather kindly way of treating prisoners who have not yet been convicted. The regulation prison dress is a kind of straw-berried red colored kimono, but men on remand wear light blue as a sign that, although under strong suspicion, they have not yet been found guilty. When prisoners in this class have occasion to pass through the public streets curious extinguisher-like baskets are placed upon their heads.—Wide World Magazine.

ELKS ORDER NOW ESTABLISHED.

with a good corps of representative, wide-awake business men and the organization will give new interest, life and vigor to the progressive City of Daytona.

OSSIFIED ELK NODULES.

His goatship, brought along by the Orlando Elks as a mascot and to butt-in the initiation was on to his job and had the pinch.

Seldom is a lodge ever instituted with so large a number of visitors present. They were here from every section of the United States and the distinguished presence of the visitors was an added interest.

The decorations were widespread, varied and most catchy, and could be written about this feature alone. The Elks certainly did appreciate the spirit with which the thing was taken up.

A darkey looked up at the flags flying in front of the Daily News office and asked "Say, boss what holiday am dis?"

Visitors roped a number of candidates yesterday and paraded them up Beach street roped together and trailing along after the goat, which was decorated. They certainly got the boys up in striking regalia and paraphernalia. Several of the boys were made to wear big night shirts; some had their coats and vests turned inside out; some were coatless and hatless, and the initiates presented a ludicrous appearance and were given the laugh as they trudged along. In the motley bunch of dejected looking goat-followers were observed Wm. Jackson, Dr. N. H. Clark, Chris Gougharty, F. N. Conrad, W. M. Hankins, Chas. E. Gardner, Leon Rowe, Garth B. Young, J. D. Maley, C. M. Bingham, H. Hartshorn and others too ridiculous in costume to be recognized. F. D. Spring was with this bunch, too.

In the midst of the preparations the alarming report was circulated that somebody had stolen the goat. Sure enough, this necessary adjunct had either been stolen or had "let" the rope which held him and taken French leave. Proceedings came to a stand still and the mascot was found complacently browsing on Col. Bingham's wash in his rear premises. He was led back and the initiation proceeded.

The big moguls of the Republican party of Florida were much in evidence. H. S. Chubb is registrar of U. S. land office and the chief dispenser of federal patronage. O'Neil is a trustee of Rollins college and was a candidate for congress at the last election and stands high in his party; Wm. Allen is postmaster at DeLand, a big factor in Volusia politics, while Mayor Seaman of Daytona has the distinction of editing the only Republican paper in Florida of the Lilly white variety.

Professor Blackie's Opinion.

A correspondent sends an anecdote concerning the attempt of a serious minded lady to lure Professor Blackie into giving his opinion of Sankey's hymns at a time when they had an enormous vogue. The lady was giving the professor lunch, and he tried to fob her off by praising a Stilton cheese on the table. Some time after the lady sent him a copy of Sankey and a piece of the cheese, hoping thus to draw him. She succeeded to the extent of these four lines of verse:

Thrice blessed is she that hath done what she could
To make a lean man fat and a bad man good—
For the body, cheese; for the soul, Sankey;
For both, thankie. —Glasgow Herald.
